

BRAD E. SEIDEL

Of Counsel

PROFILE

Brad Seidel is a business trial attorney at Hedrick Kring Bailey PLLC, focused on complex commercial and consumer litigation. Clients routinely retain him for his tenacity and ability to creatively resolve issues. He has represented a broad array of clients from pension funds to individuals in state and federal courts across the country against some of the nation's largest law firms. His experience includes litigating claims of breach of contract, breach of fiduciary duty, shareholder oppression, securities fraud, common law fraud, negligent misrepresentation, unfair and deceptive practices, royalty underpayment, and patent infringement. Outside of the courtroom, Mr. Seidel routinely advises executives and boards on risk management, contractual matters, dispute resolution, and litigation strategies and provides outside general counsel services.
