PROFILE

Joshua L. Hedrick is a business trial lawyer and a founding member of Hedrick Kring Bailey PLLC. With a focus on high-stakes litigation, Mr. Hedrick handles a broad array of business disputes. His clients range from large, publicly-traded corporations to individual trustees. In recent years, his practice has increasingly centered around bankruptcy and insolvency-related litigation, with a particular focus on the representation of post-confirmation litigation trustees. His practice also includes shareholder and partnership disputes, fiduciary relationship disputes, insurance disputes, trade secret disputes, contract disputes, commercial real estate disputes, and disputes between commercial lenders and commercial borrowers.

Mr. Hedrick spends a significant amount of his time in the courtroom prosecuting and defending actions involving temporary restraining orders, temporary injunctions, and the appointment of receivers; handling oral arguments; and trying lawsuits to judges and juries. Mr. Hedrick is also an experienced advocate in arbitration proceedings.
